Reaching the Lost for Christ

About Me

My name is Hannah Neilly. I am a missionary sent out of Limavady Baptist Church in Limavady, Northern Ireland, a church I have attended since 2001. I am currently raising missionary support while also interning at Downham Baptist Church in southeast London as part of my training.

My Testimony

I grew up in a Christian home in Northern Ireland. At nine years old, I came to understand that Jesus Christ had died for my sins, and I placed my faith in Him to save me. As a teenager, I became aware of the need for people to take the gospel overseas, and eventually I surrendered my life to God, to use me however and wherever He needed.

My Training

In July 2015, I graduated from the University of Central Lancashire with a degree in TEFL and French, and I am currently completing a course of missionary training through the Our Generation Training Center in Alpharetta, Georgia, USA. The course that I am following comprises three stages: training in the UK (Oct 2016 - July 2017), training at the centre in the USA (August - December 2017), and then an overseas internship (January - June 2018), most likely in Africa.

My Mission Field

After I finish my training, I will serve in long-term missions overseas. I will work with and assist missionary families who are involved in church-planting, evangelism, and discipleship. The mission organisation that I will serve alongside is Vision Baptist Missions, which currently has 37 different missionary families around the world. I have a real heart for Africa and in particular predominately Muslim countries, but I am willing to go wherever God leads and where I am needed.

My Support

I am currently at 49% of my support. My support base is primarily made up of churches and individuals who make monthly donations either through my sending church or online. I would love to come to your church and present the burden God has placed on my heart.

Thank you for your time and consideration of my ministry.
